85,000€

Casa Cierva - Well Presented and Spacious 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom house with outdoor terraces in the heart of Oria, ready to move straight into and easy walk to amenities.

On entering the property you are welcomed onto a charming front terrace - a pleasant outdoor seating area perfect for enjoying morning coffee or relaxing in the evening. The socila terrace where you can meet the neighbours.

Entering through the front door, you are greeted by a spacious and inviting lounge featuring a built-in log burner, creating a warm and comfortable living space. The adjoining kitchen is generously sized and fitted with attractive cabinetry, offering plenty of storage and workspace. On the ground floor there is also a convenient cloakroom/shower room.

A further door leads to an additional character-filled room with a beautiful fireplace. Originally used as a garage with direct street access, this versatile space now provides a large 2nd reception room or potential dining area. It features exposed wooden beams and a wooden built-in unit, adding to the property's charm.

Upstairs, the main double bedroom benefits from direct access to a very good sized terrace that runs the full length of the house - an excellent outdoor area with plenty of room for seating or sunbathing. There are two further well sized double bedrooms on this level, along with a full family bathroom fitted with a bathtub.

Overall, this is a lovely, well-presented home full of character, featuring attractive wooden windows with traditional chutters, generous living spaces, and multiple outdoor areas ideal for enjoying the Spanish climate.
