RESIDENCIAL LA FUENTE

A fabulous new development located in a peaceful country setting, yet convenient to all amenities including golf, the motorway, shops and restaurants. El Pinar de Bédar is an old abandoned mining village, which is now coming to life again and has stunning views to the mountains and the sea. Approximately 20 minutes drive from the local beaches and near to several golf courses there is a range of newly completed properties for sale. All are built to a high standard with up to 100% mortgages available and only 4% purchase tax. There are apartments, town houses, semi-detached and detached villas available, with 2, 3, 4 and 5 bedrooms, some with private pools and some with community pools, all with gardens and parking facilities. Prices start at 174,300 euros.
