Casa Alba is ideal for someone looking for a large house but only needs a small amount of outside space and wishes to be part of a friendly community of Spanish and Ex-Pats. Some of the furniture is also for sale so is a real bonus if you are looking for to move in straight away and live or rent it out.

The approx 230m2 gated and fenced garden is actually just over the lane so is safe to access and as the village has a bypass so only the residents & visitors drive into the village.
