1. Tourist Management Model:

- As these are tourist apartments, the property has a guaranteed tourist license.
- The owner can outsource the management to a specialized company that handles everything: marketing on platforms (Booking/Airbnb), guest reception, cleaning, and maintenance.
- This generates an estimated gross return of between 5% and 10% annually, significantly higher than traditional rentals.

2. Personal Use and Enjoyment:

- The owner typically reserves a number of weeks per year for their own use, enjoying a luxury resort without daily
